LABOR DAY CELEBRATED

A Great Concourse of People at Ocean View.

ADDRESS BY H. L. LLOYD

Mr. C. C. Williams Speaks—Spend a Day at Ocean View.
Program of Athletic Field Sports
Well Carried Out—Special Vande ville Performances—Dancing in the Ball Room and Fireworks
Close the Day.

Yesterday the conditions were very favorable to the celebration of Labor Day in this section. The official celebration was at Ocean View, and the crowd there began to gather early, and it stayed late. It is estimated that from 6,000 to 8,000 people assembled there.

THE ADDRESSES.
 Soon after 3:30 p. m. the crowd assembled at the pavilion to hear the addresses of Mr. C. C. Williams, ex-president of the Central Labor Union of Southeastern Virginia, and Mr. Harry L. Lloyd, of Boston, president United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. The meeting was called to order by Mr. L. V. Curtis, president of the Central Labor Union. In a few brief words he introduced Mr. Williams. In the name of the Central Labor Union the latter welcomed his hearers. Next he briefly explained the organization of the Central Labor Union, and stated that nearly every branch of labor here was organized and was represented in the above body.

He briefly reviewed the work of the organization and its committees, enlarging particularly on the Legislative Committee and its important work in looking after the interests of organized labor in Virginia. The work of Mr. Chas. G. Kizer, in securing the organization of a Labor Bureau, was reviewed and the mention of Mr. Kizer's name was the signal for loud applause. He said: "To-day we enjoy the benefits of the bill that provided a Bureau of Labor and Industrial Statistics. The speaker said that the eight-hour bill that will be brought up again at the next meeting of Congress. This is a bill limiting the hours of daily services of laborers, workmen and mechanics employed upon the public works, or of work done for the United States, or any territory, or the District of Columbia. The speaker said that Senator Martin had told him that this bill would come up at the next meeting of Congress and would probably be passed. The speaker next spoke of the Committee on Labor and Strikes. He urged hearers to always look for the union label when purchasing manufactured goods. He then spoke of the value of the work of the Central Labor Union in adjusting grievances between employers and employees who are members of any union represented in the Central Labor Union. Mr. Fairless, who was down for an address, was unable to be present.

MR. LLOYD'S ADDRESS.
 The chairman then introduced Mr. Harry L. Lloyd, the speaker of the day. He began by alluding to the time when labor not only had no holiday, but had only scant recognition and few courtesies. The speaker: "The labor union, although once tolerated in the land, now stands like a bride at the altar, to receive the congratulations of the people of the land. Our purpose is to carry the gospel of liberty, the doctrine of political and industrial liberty into every home in the land. My duty, this afternoon is to tell you the labor movement comes to you with a mission and without a muzzle." Then in eloquent words he told how organized labor went into the mill and took the little children from the looms and placed them in the school room. He said: "A Republic cannot live when there is one industrial slave in it." He spoke of the necessity of the labor movement and pointed to the three million unemployed men in the United States, to the hundreds of married women who each morning leave their homes to toil in the factories, and to the mass of children in our factories. As long as these and other evil conditions exist, said the speaker, there is a necessity for the labor movement and for trade unions. The trade union gives the employee an equality with the employer. The speaker said: "The trade union does not stand for strikes. Where labor is fewest and seldom and in so far from being where labor is most frequent. It is made difficult by our constitutions for us to strike. When misunderstandings arise between employers and employed all other means are tried before a strike is inaugurated, but when we do strike, then we strike hard."

LABOR OPPOSED TO "EXPA-SION."
 He touched on the question of "imperialism," and stated that organized labor was opposed to it, with its necessary large standing army, which might eventually turn on the ranks of labor. He said labor opposed it on account of the expense of maintaining a large army with all its resultant expense. He referred to the persecution of Dreyfus in France to save the honor of France's army, and to the evils of militarism that had himself seen in Belgium, Holland and other countries of Europe, where women were subjected to the hardest toil.

THE EIGHT HOUR DAY.
 One of his most telling points was on the eight-hour day—"eight hours for work, eight hours for sleep, eight hours for enjoyment." The eight-hour day would, in its results, bring into the ranks of employed labor the 3,000,000 men now idle and employers would still be seeking for more men. By an illustration he showed how supply and demand regulates the price of labor just as it regulates the prices of other things. With an eloquent portrayal he closed with a fine tribute to the good that is being accomplished by the trade unions of America in their efforts to free the industrial slave and elevate the ranks of labor.

 This was one of the finest events of the day. The bicycle record Norfolk to Ocean View was 22 minutes 42 seconds, held by W. D. Nye. PRINCESS ANNE

The Democrats Nominate Mr. A. S. Ewell for the Legislature.

He Declines to Say How He Would Vote on the Senatorial Question—Mr. Whitehead, of Norfolk, and Dr. Snead, Makes Speeches.

The Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for the Legislature was held at Princess Anne court house yesterday at 12 o'clock. Mr. A. S. Ewell, of Kempsville, was nominated on the first ballot, and W. M. Hartley, of Pungo, Mr. Ewell declined to say how he would vote on the Senatorial issue. The courthouse was surrendered to the Democrats, and at noon Mr. E. W. Ward, county chairman, called the convention to order. Mr. A. E. Herbert, of Kempsville, was elected temporary chairman, with T. J. Riehacon, of Seaboard, as secretary. Committees composed of one delegate from each district were appointed on credentials, organization and resolutions. The Committee on Credentials reported a full delegation of 33 persons present, 11 from each district and no contests. The temporary officers were made permanent officers of the convention.

Mr. Baum, of Pungo district, nominated W. M. Hartley, saying that he was a true Democrat and would poll a large vote in any part of the county. He said Mr. Hartley is very strong, especially in Pungo. Mr. A. E. Herbert in a neat speech, presented the name of Mr. Ewell, claiming for his candidate that he is one of the most popular men in the county, well educated, well informed on public questions, and if elected would represent the entire people. One ballot was taken and resulted in Mr. Ewell's election by 22 to 11 votes. Kempsville and Seaboard districts voted solidly for Ewell, and Pungo for Hartley.

The committee of one delegate from each district was appointed to invite Messrs. Ewell and Hartley to address the convention. Mr. Hartley could not be found, but Mr. Ewell came before the convention, and in accepting the nomination pledged his best efforts in behalf of the people of his county. The County Executive Committee was reorganized and W. W. Cason was elected chairman and Dr. Baum secretary.

Mr. W. W. Cason moved that Mr. John Whitehead, Democrat, candidate for the Legislature from Norfolk, who was present, be requested to address the convention. The motion was unanimously adopted. Mr. Whitehead was introduced and spoke for about thirty minutes, advocating the claims of Senator Arthur M. Tye. When Mr. Whitehead had concluded Dr. Snead spoke in behalf of Governor Tyler, and then the meeting adjourned.

Death of Mr. D. P. Hylop.
 Mr. D. Percy Hylop, one of the most popular and highly esteemed young residents of Brambleton Ward, passed away at his home, on West Brambleton avenue, opposite Cooke, at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, after a painful and protracted illness, which he bore with fortitude and Christian resignation. He was in the 25th year of his life. For a number of years he was in the employ of Messrs. J. S. Bell, Jr. & Co., and was a tried and trusted employee. He was a young man of most excellent character, of great intellect, with a disposition and a great favorite with all who knew him. He leaves a widow and two children. The funeral will be held from the Park Avenue Baptist Church at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and will be attended by the Norfolk Tribe of Red Men, and Columbia Lodge, I. O. O. F., of which he was a member.

Election of Officers.
 The annual election of officers of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions was held yesterday, and the following were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. J. H. Wemple, president; Mrs. C. J. Wright, vice-president; Mrs. M. J. DeJarnette, treasurer; Mrs. E. T. Powell, corresponding secretary, and Miss Ellen Morien, secretary.

The meeting was largely attended and much interest was manifested in the work. The church is expected to co-operate with the society and aid them in their good work.

Body Recovered.
 The tug Virginia, that reached Norfolk Sunday night, reports the finding of the body of a white man floating off Brant Island Light, Pamlico Sound. There was nothing on the body by which it could be identified. The Virginia towed the body into Meckelsville, N. C., where it was left for interment. The body was in good condition, and is supposed to be the remains of a victim of the recent hurricane.

Hebrew New Year.
 The Hebrew congregations in the city held services last evening in honor of the Jewish New Year, which began at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. Services will also be held by the congregations today at Old Shalom Dr. Cohen will conduct services, beginning at 10 o'clock. Dr. H. Benmosche will conduct the services at the Cumberland Street Synagogue, and the Rabbi of the B'Nai Israel congregation, M. Sarom, will conduct the exercises of this congregation.

Still More Counterfeiting.
 The Secret Service has just unearthed another band of counterfeiters in a sum of large quantity of bogus $5 bills, which are so cleverly executed that the average person would never suspect them of being counterfeit. The gang of great value are always selected by counterfeiters for imitations notably the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which has many imitations. The counterfeiters are like fever, ague, malaria, indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and general debility. The Bitters sets things right and when the stomach is in good working order it makes good blood and plenty of it. In this manner the Bitters get at the seat of strength and vitality, and pay in vigor to the weak and debilitated. Beware of counterfeiters when buying. Always go to reliable druggists who have the reputation of giving what you ask for.

FESTIVITIES AT VIRGINIA BEACH
 BIG CROWD ENJOYS THOROUGHLY A CHARMING ROUND OF PLEASURE.
 Virginia Beach kept Labor Day yesterday and had in the neighborhood of 3,500 people to assist in the general good time provided. As result all of the trains, regular and special, run after 7:30 a. m. were well filled, several of them packed and some consisting of as many as ten cars; fully 700 went down on the 5:10 p. m. train and as nearly as many on the 6:30 p. m. train. Mr. W. P. Ashburne, the principal passenger agent, was fully up to the mark. The beach road's record, and no one but those who were with the care taken and speedy trains.

There was no regular schedule of sports followed, though the sports listed came off, and in so far from being listless and vapid affairs, as such are too apt to be, were each excellent. The pigeon shooting was under direction of Mr. T. J. Richardson, and the in-terest centered in Messrs. Hurst, of Norfolk, and Hammond, of Richmond, the leaders in the events. Mr. Hurst won the first event, 10 live birds; Messrs. Trice and Hammond, of Richmond, won the second.
